Newport, R. I., Aug. 17.—The narrow escapes from defeat of Richard Norris Williams 2d of Philadelphia, the national champion, and of Nathaniel W. Niles, the Longwood star, and the down-fall of Robert Le Roy, former intercollegiate champion, gave color to the play to-day in the invitation lawn tennis tournament at the Casino turf courts. B Detroit, the motor boat built by tional champion, and of Nathaniel W. the Smith Boat and Engine Company Niles, the Longwood star, and the downfor a syndicate of Detroit enthusiasts, fail of Robert Le Roy, former intercolset Bay and thus took all three of the play to-day in the invitation lawn tennis tournament at the Casino turf courts. Both Williams and Niles had to go deciding set.
